

The German Embassy in London is seeking a

Deputy Press Spokesman (full-time)

from 1 March 2012

This post comprises the following duties:

- Deputising for the Head of the Press Section
- Establishing and maintaining contact with British media and building a network of contacts with key press offices
- Liaising with and providing support to German correspondents in London
- Organising press conferences
- Contributing to strategic discussions on the Embassy's press and public relations work
- Preparing daily press telegram
- Preparing Embassy's press releases
- Preparing interviews

Candidate profile:

- University degree or equivalent background (e.g. several years' experience in similar role in media sector)
- Wide experience in press and communications work
- Fluent English and German
- Good speaking and writing skills in both languages
- Flexible and able to work under pressure
- Good team player
- Willingness to learn

Training will be provided.

Salary will be based on the Embassy's pay scale and will take into account the responsibility of this role and the postholder's aptitude and ability. Please indicate your salary expecttiations (gross p.a.) in your application. Please apply in writing in German and English, with your CV also in German and English, by 15 February 2012 to:

German Embassy
-Administration-
23 Belgrave Square/Chesham Place
London SW1X 8PZ
(E-Mail: vw-10@lond.diplo.de)

It is intended that interviews will be held around mid February 2012. We unfortunately cannot refund any travel expenses arising from interviews. For all further information on this post, please telephone

Herr Dr. Walter           Tel.: 0044 – (0)20-78241 355 or Herr Borscheid         Tel.: 0044 – (0)20-78241 418